

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER OF INSURANCE

WHEREAS: The Office of Commissioner of Insurance was originally known as the Office of Comptroller General. It was officially changed to the Office of Commissioner of Insurance on August 19th, 1912; and

WHEREAS: The many and varied functions and duties charged to the Commissioner's office are established through the Georgia Constitution, the Official Code of Georgia, and the Rule and Regulations of the Office of Commissioner of Insurance. This distinguished office affects the lives of almost every Georgian every day; and

WHEREAS: The mission of the Office of Commissioner of Insurance is to ensure that the public's interests are served through professional oversight of regulated industries, consumer protection, and broad-based educational activities; and

WHEREAS: Officially made a Constitutional office in 1861, the vision of the Office of Commissioner of Insurance is to have a well-trained workforce using state-of-the-art technology to facilitate professional regulation, greater coordination, and uniformity among state regulators, and greater public access to services and information that result in a more fire-safe environment and a consumer-friendly, competitive marketplace for insurance and small loan products; now

THEREFORE: I, NATHAN DEAL, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim August 19, 2012, as the 100TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION OF THE OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER OF INSURANCE in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 19th day of August in the year of our Lord two thousand twelve.
